L'Otentik - Dolswim and Casela World of Adventures

Meet and swim with the Dolphins in their natural environment. After an encounter with dolphins in their natural habitat on the west coast, we head off to Casela World of Adventures - a 10 hectare park with 1,500 birds, giant tortoises, monkeys and safari, where you will discover various species of animals. Lunch is with a Mauritian family to discover local food and cultures. Last stop is the flea market of Quatre Bornes for Shopping for clothing, accessories and handicrafts at attractive prices. Dinner at the resort.

DAY 3 (Monday): (B,L,D)

Breakfast at the resort.

Contrastes & Nuances Tour with Lunch.

Make the most of your time in Mauritius with this sightseeing experience. The journey starts with the visit to Curepipe: 2nd largest city of the island centrally situated and also known as "La Ville Lumiere" since it was the first town in the island to run on electricity. Climb to the upper plateau for a stunning panoramic view of the island from the top of Trou aux Cerfs, a dormant volcano. As we drive southwards to Chamarel for a visit and lunch stop at a rum distillery, you will enjoy the breathtaking landscape adorning the sacred lake of Grand Bassin and the Black River Gorges National Park. In the afternoon, you will discover the natural treasures of Chamarel, including the unusual geological phenomenon of the Seven-Colored Earth and a spectacular waterfall. Dinner at the resort.
